INTRODUCTION

The early Kanawha County Marriage records are recorded in four books. These books are in such fragile condition that they are no longer kept with the later marriage records. They are available by request at the Clerk's office in the Kanawha County Courthouse.

The first courthouse book, which lists marriages from 1794 to 1826, was copied February 13, 1931 by R.N. Moulton, Clerk of Kanawha County. The second courthouse book contains the records of 1816 through 1843. The third old volume lists marriages of 1850 - 1867. Several records appear more than once as indicated by the dates of the first two original books.

I have attempted to copy for the Kanawha Valley Genealogical Society all the information as I read it. Sometimes complete names were not written; sometimes torn pages, faded writing and other factors made it difficult to read the records; often dates were incomplete or missing. Some ministers waited a few years before sending their marriage records to the office.

Spellings of family names and of given names have many variations. For example, Milam, Milem and Milum; Sheperd, Shepard, Shepherd; Midkiff, Meadkiff; Jinkins, Jenkins; Enicks, Ennis; Hix, Hicks; Cobb, Cobbs, Cobbe.

Part I includes all the 1794 - 1826 marriages and an index for these records. Following these records pages 1 - 22 from the second courthouse book are included with a separate index for this portion.

These records have been copied as an aid to people seeking ancestors in the area. Part I is to be followed by the records through 1867.

Female

These records are pages 1 - 22 from Kanawha County Marriages, 1816 - 1843. Some names appeared in the first book as well as in this volume. Some were repeated in the same volumes, but we have tried to copy the books as they are.

PART II

Early Kanawha County Marriage Records

Part II

The early marriage records of Kanawha County are recorded in three books at the Kanawha County Courthouse. We have copied these early records in the order in which they appear in the books. Some records appear more than once. Perhaps ministers sent returns two or more times, or perhaps different clerks copied the returns.

The index lists males and females separately. In searching for a name look for all variations of spellings. e.g., May, Mays, Maze. Too, look for words that may have similar letters in the old script. e. g., Lee, See.

The books of marriages are divided thus: 1794 - 1826; 1816 - 1843; 1850 - 1867. Our first publication, Part I, Early Kanawha County Marriages, included all the marriages listed in the first book and one sixth of the second record. Our second publication, Part II, Early Kanawha County Marriages, lists the marriages in the next third of the original volume, 1816 - 1843. As the area grew so did the records of marriages. This Part II contains about 2000 names.

This work was done for Kanawha Valley Genealogical Society by Maxine May Swango.
